

CIUB Summer School Program Syllabus

Program Description

This program is designed for the students of the University of Basel and other universities in Switzerland. The main objective of the program is to help students develop their listening and speaking skills of Chinese language and their understanding of China, particularly contemporary China.

The program is composed of two parts with total 90 course hours and 30 working hours for assignments. The first part is pre-departure intensive Chinese language courses with 40 course hours in the Confucius Institute at the University of Basel (CIUB) starting from July 1-9, 2019. The second part contains intensive 60-hour course work and cultural excursions at East China Normal University (ECNU), Shanghai starting from July 15 to 29, 2019.

Upon completion, students are expected to have a better understanding of Chinese language and culture.

Program Requirement

The program is offered only to university students with or without Chinese language background. The program contains intensive Chinese language lectures and cultural excursions. Participants will have oral and written Chinese language examinations. They are required to write journals to report their stay in Shanghai. In addition, they will attend the Chinese Language Proficiency test HSK after the 7 days intensive language courses, scheduled on 13 July. There is a presentation scheduled, highlighting their exploration and understanding of Chinese cultures upon completion of the program on September 20th.2019.

Scores

Upon successful completion of the program, participants can submit the CIUB-Certificate to the dean of study at his/her faculty to apply for 4 ECTS credits (European Credit and Transfer System).

Score components:

- Participation 10%
- Class contribution 10%
- Oral and written examinations 40%
- HSK Test 20%
- Final presentation 10%
